Contents
The structures of the individual and institutional behaviour of Christians in society and the principles that underlie it. Discussion of responsible ethical behaviour from the point of view of Christian faith. An introduction to institutions, such as the human rights, in which this behaviour manifests.

Intended learning outcomes
At the end of the course, students will have become familiar with standard models for the constitution and justification of ethical norms and will know how faith influences ethical behaviour. They will have become familiar with the foundations of Christian social ethics and will have developed an awareness of issues surrounding human rights. They will be able to identify and solve fundamental problems in ethics.
