Contents
Detailed discussion of topics in moral theology and social ethics and their contexts. Discussion of medicine-related issues faced by society that are of interest within the discipline of moral theology based on relevant literature. The module thus covers a range of relevant topics in moral theology and Christian social sciences. In addition, it discusses topics in literary studies, the history of religion, politics, sociology, psychology, and theology.
Intended learning outcomes
At the end of the course, students will have developed an advanced knowledge of key topics and problems in moral theology and social ethics. They will have developed an awareness of the historical development and contexts of relevant literature. They will be able to critically reflect upon issues currently faced by society and take their own well-founded position on them.
