Contents
Religious education in modern society must deal with religious and cultural pluralism. This module discusses efforts made to incorporate pluralism into the religious education classroom. It investigates the benefits of pluralism in the religious education classroom and discusses the features of a plural religious education classroom.
Intended learning outcomes
At the end of the course, students will have become familiar with approaches to incorporating anthropological and social pluralism into the religious education classroom. They will be able to formulate the implications of pluralism for religious education and for their own teaching. They will be able to name the features of a plural religious education classroom.
