Contents
Lecture to acquaint students with the origins, development, and current situation of eastern Christianity as well as its denominational differentiation, i.e. division into Orthodox, Oriental Orthodox, and Uniate churches. An overview of aspects relating to the ecclesiological structures and liturgy as well as spiritual aspects that characterise these churches.

Intended learning outcomes
At the end of the course, students will have become familiar with the fundamental principles of denominational studies of the eastern churches. They will have a grounding in the discipline and its methods that will enable them to develop an awareness of how denominational differentiations are conditioned by their historical contexts as well as to find solutions to current problems relating to interreligious and intercultural dialogue.
