Today's society is characterised by cultural and religious pluralism. This module discusses efforts made to incorporate pluralism into the religious education classroom. It investigates the benefits of pluralism in the religious education classroom and discusses the features of a plural religious education classroom.
Intended learning outcomes
At the end of the course, students will have become familiar with the anthropological and social features of a plural society. They will be able to formulate the implications of pluralism for religious education and for their own teaching. They will be able to name the features of a plural religious education classroom.
