Contents

The relationship between religion, culture, and society in plural and multicultural contexts. Analysis of faith, religion, and theology and how they impact upon culture and society. Discussion of some aspects of religious education in the context of today's secular society. An introduction to patterns and forms of theological/religious argument used in discourses in society and discussion of the importance of intercultural and interreligious dialogue.

Intended learning outcomes

At the end of the course, students will have become familiar with religion as a socio-anthropological reality as well as with the relevance and power of religion to shape society and culture in plural and multicultural contexts. They will be familiar with patterns and forms of theological/religious argument and will have developed an awareness of the importance of intercultural and interreligious dialogue. Students will be able to identify religious phenomena and forms of expression of religion in a cultural and social context as well as to critically reflect upon them.
