Contents
Discussion of key topics and problems to encourage students to reflect upon the modern religious education classroom, taking the tensions between academic theology and their own faith into account. An introduction to, and training in, academic writing and research, including but not limited to guidance on how to conduct a literature search. An insight into methods in theology and an introduction to the application of selected methods.
Intended learning outcomes
At the end of the course, students will have gained an overview of key topics and problems as well as structures and methods in theology. They will be familiar with, and able to use, scholarly methods and will know how to conduct a literature search. They will have gained an insight into a range of methods used in theology and will be able to use selected methods in theology.
