Contents
An introduction to the importance of, and the challenges associated with, interreligious dialogue from a Christian point of view. Discussion of the relationship between Christianity and Judaism based on the history of Israel and Judaism, including but not limited to the history of Judaism during the Hellenistic and Roman periods. Discussion of the way in which issues in religious studies influence the self-understanding of Christianity.
Intended learning outcomes
At the end of the course, students will have become familiar with the history of Israel and Hellenistic Judaism and will have developed an awareness of how it impacts upon the theology of early Christianity. They will have been sensitised to the importance of, and the challenges associated with, interreligious dialogue. Students will have become familiar with the implications of religious diversity for Christian theology.
