Contents
Discussion of biblical foundations with special attention to Old Testament Messianic texts as well as New Testament texts about the life and works of Jesus of Nazareth. Investigation of problems in early church relating to the faith in Jesus Christ as the Saviour and the Lord, including but not limited to questions about the oneness and the plurality of God and the relationship between God and humankind in Jesus Christ; discussion of the historical development of the debate during the first five centuries AD. Discussion of christology as a reflection on the centre and source of Christian faith in today's religiously plural world; an introduction to the historical Jesus and the Christ of faith.
Intended learning outcomes
At the end of the course, students will have become familiar with the Messianic texts as well as New Testament texts about the life and works of Jesus Christ. They will have become familiar with the christology and models of biblical texts and the early Church as well as with the historical development of the debate during the first five centuries AD. Students will have become familiar with systematic issues relating to the Bible and the first four ecumenical councils as well as with the christology of the Middle Ages and the modern age. They will have gained deeper insights into, and a fuller understanding of, a contemporary christology and the tensions between christology and soteriology. They will have developed an appreciation of christology as a reflection on the centre and source of Christian faith and will be able to explain the dogma of Christ in interreligious dialogue. Students will be able to critically reflect upon topical issues and take their own well-founded position on them.
