Contents

Discussion of topics in historical theology to foster an understanding of church history and an ability to critically review sources and relevant literature. Development of the students' ability to understand the continuity, complexity, and relativity of developments in church history, form an opinion of their own, and conduct their own research.

Intended learning outcomes

At the end of the course, students will have developed an advanced knowledge of selected topics in historical theology, an understanding of church history, and an ability to critically review sources and relevant literature. They will be able to independently interpret developments in church history and conduct their own research.
