Contents
This module focuses on the investigation of the Christian community. It aims to extend and consolidate what students have learned earlier about building up congregations. The section on homiletics discusses the communicative aspect of preaching in theory and practice.
Intended learning outcomes
At the end of the course students will have gained deeper insights into the distinguishing characteristics of the Christian community. They will have developed the ability to analyse and build up congregations as well as to understand them in their context. In addition, students will have developed an awareness of the communicative aspect of preaching and will have gained proficiency in preaching.
