Contents

This module gives students the opportunity to engage in thorough self-directed study (might be carried out under the guidance or supervision of the competent subject representative) to consolidate and synthesise the knowledge they have gained throughout the programme in Catholic theology as well as to prepare for their written exams. The material to be covered in the course and assessment will be specified by the competent subject representatives.

Intended learning outcomes

To pass this module, students will be expected to be able to largely independently explore selected topics in theology, adhering to the principles of good scholarly practice, and to synthesise those topics in an appropriate manner within the limited time allowed for written exams.
