Contents

An understanding of two sub-disciplines within theology: liturgy and pastoral theology. An overview of structures and forms of liturgical celebration in church. An introduction to key problems in pastoral theology, including but not limited to the state of the Catholic Church and the level of religiosity in Germany, as well as the basic functions of the Church.

Intended learning outcomes

At the end of the module, students will have become familiar with fundamental problems in liturgy and pastoral theology and will be able to reflect upon liturgical and pastoral activities of the Church, drawing on the knowledge they have developed.
