Contents
Development of an understanding of the methods typically used in sub-disciplines within theology. Discussion of key topics and problems to encourage students to reflect upon the modern religious education classroom, taking the tensions between academic theology and their own faith into account. Introduction to, and training in, academic writing and research, including but not limited to guidance on how to conduct a literature search.
Intended learning outcomes
At the end of the course, students will have become familiar with the methods typically used in the sub-disciplines within theology as well as with techniques for the analysis of texts. They will have gained an overview of structures and methods in theology. Students will be familiar with, and able to use, scholarly methods and will know how to conduct a literature search.
