Duration	Module level	Other prerequisites
1 semester	undergraduate	--
Contents
Fundamental knowledge and analytical approaches of experimental biomedicine are taught based on selected questions of platelet physiology and megakaryopoiesis. Emphasis is put on the generation and use of antibodies. Transgenic mouse models are used to elucidate the interplay underlying (patho-)physiological processes.
Intended learning outcomes
Students have developed the ability to approach, analyse and interpret experimental data obtained with the help of monoclonal antibodies, in particular in the field of platelet physiology. They also have developed skills in experimental design, bench work, data analysis and the interpretation of scientific literature as well as the presentation of scientific results in English.
Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language – if other than German)
P (6) Module taught in: German/English
Method of assessment (type, scope, language – if other than German, examination offered – if not every semester, information on whether module is creditable for bonus)
a) written examination (45 to 90 minutes) or b) log (10 to 20 pages) or c) oral examination of one candidate each (20 to 30 minutes) or d) oral examination in groups of up to 3 candidates (approx. 20 minutes per candidate) or e) presentation (20 to 30 minutes). Students will be informed about the type and length of assessment at the beginning of the course. Language of assessment: German or English
