This module will discuss several royal inscriptions, of varying age, in Akkadian language as examples of one of the largest and most important text genres of the literature of the ancient Near East. It will analyse these inscriptions not only, but in particular, with regard to aspects of history and the history of literature. The key focus of the module will be on Old Babylonian royal inscriptions in monumental script as well as on middle and neo-Assyrian royal inscriptions. The student will also learn to critically analyse historical sources.
Intended learning outcomes
The student will acquire an overview of the genre of "royal inscriptions in Akkadian language" and will develop the ability to evaluate issues associated with these texts as historical sources.
