Contents
The module is dedicated to reading ancient Near Eastern literary texts of the 1st millennium BC, especially epics and mythology, prayers, hymns and invocations (with the appurtenant rituals and regulations), wisdom literature, lyrical texts or historical-legendary texts. Emphasis is placed upon reading Akkadian cuneiform texts of the 1st millennium BC, especially from Babylonia and Assyria, but bilingual (Sumerian-Akkadian) texts may also be incorporated into the curriculum. The linguistic form and the historical background of the texts read, including questions concerning the history of law, science and ideas, will be explained and discussed in class.
Intended learning outcomes
The student will acquire a comprehensive overview of the tradition of ancient Near Eastern literary texts of the 1st millennium BC. He/she will gain deeper knowledge of selected text groups and their historical backgrounds, including questions about the history of religion, sciences and ideas. The student will have a good reading knowledge of the major literary dialects of Akkadian in the 1st millennium BC, especially detailed knowledge of Standard Babylonian. He/she will be able to transliterate and translate the texts assigned or read in class and to comment on both their content and formal style. He/she will acquire the ability to transliterate, translate and classify (with regard to content) more difficult Akkadian texts of the 1st millennium BC beyond the class curriculum with the help of dictionaries and sign lists.
