

Module coordinator holder of the Chair of Ancient Near Eastern Studies  ECTS Method of grading Only after succ. com 15 numerical grade  Duration Module level Other prerequisites 1 semester graduate  Contents  The module is dedicated to reading ancient Near Eastern text and non-literary texts. Emphasis is normally placed upon the ding the use of Akkadian outside of Babylonia and Assyria), be incorporated into the curriculum. In addition, the ancient side of Mesopotamia in the 2nd millennium (especially Hittit text corpus) may also be studied. The linguistic form and the questions concerning the history of law, society, science and Intended learning outcomes  The student will acquire a comprehensive overview of the traenium BC. He/she will gain deeper knowledge of selected text groups a questions as well as questions about the history of law, soci The student will have a good reading knowledge of selected provided that these are incorporated into the curriculum - kr well as the text groups associated with them. He/she will be able to transliterate and translate the texts as their content and formal style. He/she will acquire the ability to transliterate, translate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the standard of the content and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the standard of the content and formal style.		10.107
ECTS Method of grading Only after succ. com 15 numerical grade Duration Module level Other prerequisites 1 semester graduate Contents  The module is dedicated to reading ancient Near Eastern tex and non-literary texts. Emphasis is normally placed upon the ding the use of Akkadian outside of Babylonia and Assyria), be incorporated into the curriculum. In addition, the ancient side of Mesopotamia in the 2nd millennium (especially Hittir text corpus) may also be studied. The linguistic form and the questions concerning the history of law, society, science and Intended learning outcomes  The student will acquire a comprehensive overview of the traennium BC. He/she will gain deeper knowledge of selected text groups a questions as well as questions about the history of law, society provided that these are incorporated into the curriculum - knowledge that these are incorporated into the curriculum - knowledge will be able to transliterate and translate the texts as their content and formal style. He/she will acquire the ability to transliterate, translate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and dian		AO-AOT2-122-m01
The module is dedicated to reading and into the curriculum. In addition, the ancient side of Mesopotamia in the 2nd millennium (especially Hittitext corpus) may also be studied. The linguistic form and the questions concerning the history of law, society, science and Intended learning outcomes  The student will acquire a comprehensive overview of the traennium BC. He/she will gain deeper knowledge of selected text groups a questions as well as questions about the history of law, society will have a good reading knowledge of selected provided that these are incorporated into the curriculum - knowledge of selected text groups as the text groups as sociated with them.  He/she will be able to transliterate and translate the texts as their content and formal style.  He/she will acquire the ability to transliterate, translate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the selection of the selection	lodule offered by
Duration Module level Other prerequisites  1 semester graduate  Contents  The module is dedicated to reading ancient Near Eastern tex and non-literary texts. Emphasis is normally placed upon the ding the use of Akkadian outside of Babylonia and Assyria), be incorporated into the curriculum. In addition, the ancient side of Mesopotamia in the 2nd millennium (especially Hittir text corpus) may also be studied. The linguistic form and the questions concerning the history of law, society, science and Intended learning outcomes  The student will acquire a comprehensive overview of the traennium BC.  He/she will gain deeper knowledge of selected text groups a questions as well as questions about the history of law, soci The student will have a good reading knowledge of selected provided that these are incorporated into the curriculum - knowledge to transliterate and translate the texts as their content and formal style.  He/she will acquire the ability to transliterate, translate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the state of the	hair of Ancient Near Ea	astern Studies
Duration   Module level   Other prerequisites    1 semester   graduate      Contents  The module is dedicated to reading ancient Near Eastern tex and non-literary texts. Emphasis is normally placed upon the ding the use of Akkadian outside of Babylonia and Assyria), be incorporated into the curriculum. In addition, the ancient side of Mesopotamia in the 2nd millennium (especially Hittitext corpus) may also be studied. The linguistic form and the questions concerning the history of law, society, science and Intended learning outcomes  The student will acquire a comprehensive overview of the translum BC.  He/she will gain deeper knowledge of selected text groups a questions as well as questions about the history of law, society in the student will have a good reading knowledge of selected provided that these are incorporated into the curriculum - knowledge at the text groups associated with them.  He/she will be able to transliterate and translate the texts as their content and formal style.  He/she will acquire the ability to transliterate, translate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the standard of the	. of module(s)
Contents  The module is dedicated to reading ancient Near Eastern tex and non-literary texts. Emphasis is normally placed upon the ding the use of Akkadian outside of Babylonia and Assyria), be incorporated into the curriculum. In addition, the ancient side of Mesopotamia in the 2nd millennium (especially Hittitext corpus) may also be studied. The linguistic form and the questions concerning the history of law, society, science and Intended learning outcomes  The student will acquire a comprehensive overview of the traenium BC.  He/she will gain deeper knowledge of selected text groups a questions as well as questions about the history of law, society and the student will have a good reading knowledge of selected provided that these are incorporated into the curriculum - knowledge at the text groups associated with them.  He/she will be able to transliterate and translate the texts as their content and formal style.  He/she will acquire the ability to transliterate, translate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the state of the 2nd millen
The module is dedicated to reading ancient Near Eastern tex and non-literary texts. Emphasis is normally placed upon the ding the use of Akkadian outside of Babylonia and Assyria), be incorporated into the curriculum. In addition, the ancient side of Mesopotamia in the 2nd millennium (especially Hittitext corpus) may also be studied. The linguistic form and the questions concerning the history of law, society, science and Intended learning outcomes  The student will acquire a comprehensive overview of the traennium BC.  He/she will gain deeper knowledge of selected text groups a questions as well as questions about the history of law, society and the student will have a good reading knowledge of selected provided that these are incorporated into the curriculum - knowledge at the text groups associated with them.  He/she will be able to transliterate and translate the texts as their content and formal style.  He/she will acquire the ability to transliterate, translate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and translate the texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and translate the texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and translate the texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and translate the texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and translate the texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate the texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate the texts of the 2nd millennium BC translate the texts of the 2nd millenni	ites
The module is dedicated to reading ancient Near Eastern tex and non-literary texts. Emphasis is normally placed upon the ding the use of Akkadian outside of Babylonia and Assyria), be incorporated into the curriculum. In addition, the ancient side of Mesopotamia in the 2nd millennium (especially Hittitext corpus) may also be studied. The linguistic form and the questions concerning the history of law, society, science and Intended learning outcomes  The student will acquire a comprehensive overview of the traennium BC.  He/she will gain deeper knowledge of selected text groups a questions as well as questions about the history of law, soci The student will have a good reading knowledge of selected provided that these are incorporated into the curriculum - knowledge as the text groups associated with them.  He/she will be able to transliterate and translate the texts as their content and formal style.  He/she will acquire the ability to transliterate, translate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and the stranslate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and the stranslate an and non-literary texts. Emphasis is normally placed upon the ding the use of Akkadian outside of Babylonia and Assyria), be incorporated into the curriculum. In addition, the ancient side of Mesopotamia in the 2nd millennium (especially Hitting text corpus) may also be studied. The linguistic form and the questions concerning the history of law, society, science and Intended learning outcomes  The student will acquire a comprehensive overview of the translate will gain deeper knowledge of selected text groups a questions as well as questions about the history of law, socially find the student will have a good reading knowledge of selected provided that these are incorporated into the curriculum - knowledge as the text groups associated with them.  He/she will be able to transliterate and translate the texts as their content and formal style.  He/she will acquire the ability to transliterate, translate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and the stranslate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the stranslate and t
The student will acquire a comprehensive overview of the traennium BC.  He/she will gain deeper knowledge of selected text groups a questions as well as questions about the history of law, soci The student will have a good reading knowledge of selected provided that these are incorporated into the curriculum - kr well as the text groups associated with them.  He/she will be able to transliterate and translate the texts as their content and formal style.  He/she will acquire the ability to transliterate, translate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the	nistorical background o	of the texts read, including ennium BC.  He/she will gain deeper knowledge of selected text groups a questions as well as questions about the history of law, soci The student will have a good reading knowledge of selected provided that these are incorporated into the curriculum - kn well as the text groups associated with them.  He/she will be able to transliterate and translate the texts as their content and formal style.  He/she will acquire the ability to transliterate, translate and dian and/or Hittite texts of the 2nd millennium BC beyond the sign lists.	d their historical backş y, religion, sciences a ialects of Akkadian in	grounds, including political nd ideas. the 2nd millennium BC and nt Near Eastern languages a
Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language — if other than Gerr	igned or read in class a
S (no information on SWS (weekly contact hours) and course	igned or read in class a assify (with regard to c class curriculum with module is creditable for bonus)

written examination (90 minutes) Language of assessment: German, English

Allocation of places

Additional information

Workload

Teaching cycle

Module appears in

keinem Studiengang zugeordnet

Module description

JMU Würzburg • generated 20.10.2023 • Module data record 119379