Contents
Autographing cuneiform tablets, the students will acquire key basics for handling original written sources from the ancient Near East. Being able to correctly transcribe and pronounce the ancient as well as modern names of places in the Near East is a fundamental prerequisite for studying the ancient Near East.
Intended learning outcomes
The student will develop the ability to work with original cuneiform tablets as well as to produce an autograph copy of an original cuneiform text. He/she will become familiar with ancient and modern toponymy.
