Contents

This module provides an introduction to major sources, methods, and auxiliary sciences of ancient history. It provides an overview of Greco-Roman political history as well as major lines of development in Greco-Roman history. The module also provides an introduction to Proto-Indo-European homeland theories, to the chronology and subfamilies of the Proto-Indo-European language (PIE), and to how the speakers of PIE lived.

Intended learning outcomes

This module equips students with the knowledge and methods required for the source-based scholarly study of individual topics in Greco-Roman history and ancient Indo-European cultures.
