Contents
Possibility for students to participate, according to their own areas of interest, in a module/course offered by the Egyptology faculty or other classical disciplines of the JMU. Of course, the admission requirements of the particular courses must be taken into account. Through this module, Egyptological knowledge can be consolidated, as the content of the modules is not identical every year, even if the module titles remain the same. Students also have the possibility to broaden their horizon to another classical discipline, as far as it is not already covered by the minor field of study.
Intended learning outcomes
The students have an overview of the facts, research topics and technical literature of ancient cultural history.
