Contents
Since the late 1970s the on-going process of reform and opening up has brought about great changes for China's economy and society. More than four decades later the pace of development remains high and the People's Republic of China continues to swiftly catch up to the developed industrial nations. This module discusses recent developments and trends that shape China's economy and society today and in the foreseeable future, i.e. the globalization of Chinese companies and brands, questions of innovativeness, digitization and e-commerce, or structural changes.
Intended learning outcomes
Students discuss and evaluate economic and societal developments, based on a selection of primary and secondary sources, against the background of different economic theories. The module enables them to analyze recent developments and identify emerging and future issues in China's rapidly changing economic landscape.
