Contents
The fully integrated obligatory term at Peking University is coordinated with the language teaching at the home institutions and guarantees an intensification of language training and an activation of language competencies. The interaction with further native speakers as teachers and in the Chinese environment helps to put all fields of language knowledge, such as oral expression or reading and writing abilities on a broad basis. Specialized teaching material focuses on the social, regional, cultural and economic context of Peking. Students continue to extend their systematic language training arriving at a vocabulary based on an active knowledge of ca. 1200 Chinese characters. Students learn to distinguish between relevant active and passive vocabulary. Text production and oral presentations are trained beyond the text book content and include complex compound sentences.
Intended learning outcomes
Students have the competence to go beyond text book related Chinese language knowledge and can read natural texts in their field of study based on a knowledge of about 1200 frequently used Chinese characters. Furthermore, students can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party.
