Contents
This class focusses on interactions and connections between China, Korea and Japan. These may be direct and obvious interactions such as trade (including smuggling, piracy), warfare, and diplomatic relations, or religious, philosophical, and institutional ideas and phenomena usually taken over from China in a variant more adequate for the smaller countries. Cultural phenomena discussed include (women's) literature, music, and especially painting. East Asian History I covers the time until about 1600, East Asian History II deals with the period from 1600 to 1800 (Tokugawa-shogunate in Japan, Qing-dynasty in China, Western ideas introduced by early Christian mission).
Intended learning outcomes
Students of Chinese Studies will widen their horizon and learn about different ways of implementing Chinese concepts in different settings. They will develop a deep understanding for societal conditions enabling or hindering close contacts and interactions between states and individuals.
