The course is designed for students with proficiency in the Chinese language and overall knowledge of China's history, culture and political situation based on their BA training with a Chinese language background. It offers a research-oriented, compact introduction into the basics of the Japanese language (passive and active), including hiragana and katakana writing systems as well as Chinese-based literary Japanese (kanbun), as well as grammar and vocabulary training and reading exercises. Furthermore, the basic compact course especially considers China-related reference books and other resources, providing initial training in using Japanese-language sinological resources.
Intended learning outcomes
Students' knowledge of modern Chinese allows for compact, effective and systematic introduction to Japanese grammar and vocabulary/pronunciation, providing them with working ability for independent research with Japanese sources and basic vocabulary for communication with Japanese scholars on an academic level.
