| Building on the earlier class on contemporary China's political economy, this module provides details analysis of the deepening of China's economic transformation. Starting at an advanced level the course will focus on either of the following aspects: rural development (land policy and management, agricultural development and agricultural markets, agro-food businesses, township and village enterprises, rural urbanization), globalization of China's economy (WTO entry and compliance, currency issues, incoming and outgoing foreign direct investments, relations with the "global south", China's role in international financial architecture). | | |
| Intended learning outcomes | | |
| Students receive a systematic introduction to research on China's political economy, learn about relevant theoretical and methodological approaches and the necessary sources. They are acquainted with the current scholarly debates in the field and cutting-edge research. This will prepare them for the writing of their Master's theses. | | |
