Basic phonetics, grammar and writing are taught on the basis of the teaching material used. Orthography is intensively trained with an extended vocabulary. Basic sentence structures and pronunciation are practised intensively in given simple everyday situations in small groups. The vocabulary and sentence structures learnt are transferred to further contexts in oral exercises. Oral translation exercises serve to consolidate and expand the active use of the language. Learned grammatical phenomena are systematically summarised and practised. The vocabulary reaches the extent of approx. 800 words.
