Contents
The module gives a broad overview of epochs, authors and literary forms of modern German history of literature. The module covers authors, texts and contexts of crucial significance in order to understand the literary epochs and themes. Moreover, the seminar provides students with basic principles of research methods and the research process and promotes the independent dealing with academic questions in oral or written form.
Intended learning outcomes
Students possess in-depth knowledge of epochs, authors and themes of history of German literature as well as humanistic and cultural-scientific contexts and are able to deal with complex texts and phenomena in a methodically appropriate way. In addition, students are familiar with the basic techniques of research methods and the research process as well as the oral and written presentation of work results.
