Contents
Practice-oriented consolidation of key ideas, approaches as well as (teaching) methods of German didactic sub-disciplines (language or literature/ media didactics incl. children and youth literature); Subject-specific outlined reflection of the conditions of the school and education system and its consequences on the subject German (e.g. considering the interdisciplinary aspect, alternative teaching concept and others); Research, developments and evaluation of teaching presentations in the discipline German.
Intended learning outcomes
Students acquire knowledge about possibilities, which are comprised in the school and education system, of the subject German and how to situate at the interface between theory and practical experience. They are able to make references to established and reflected theory and practical experiences and are able to evaluate, test and give a justified outline of the teaching-learning processes for "critical phases" (change, besides class tuition and others) independently.
