Contents

Consolidation and extension of generic text skills about the acquired basic contents during the bachelor degree course and beyond; Consolidation and extension of literary methodological competence; Introduction to and critical engagement with current research questions.

Intended learning outcomes

Students are acquainted with different literary methods and analytical concepts and know, how to apply these skills to historical texts independently. They will acquire the ability to classify the results of their independent analysis in a bigger literary or discourse-historical context as well as the ability to deal independently with basic and current issues of research and to present these issues independently. They are familiar with methods of the self-organisation and time management and are able to compile individual articles for research under tutelage.
