Contents
Students will independently choose an academic conference from the fields of the subdisciplines of German studies and prepare for it with the help of research and reading matter. In addition, they attend the conference and reflect the results and course of the conference in written form.
Intended learning outcomes
Students possess the ability to extrapolate issues of similar disciplines about specialist lecture and subsequent discussions. In quintessential summarising students are acquainted with the practical dealing with academic issues and the academic practice.
