This module's aim is to give a fundamental insight into everyday and popular cultures from a cultural point of view. European Ethnology / Cultural Anthropology is a cultural and social science which works historically, empirically and comparatively. It is concerned with everyday life, culture and the lifestyle of broad sections of the population in Europe from medieval times to present age. In contrast to other human or social sciences, European Ethnology / Cultural Anthropology is an interdisciplinary science that looks at specific instances and tries to approach the human being as a cultural being: In an interdisciplinary way European Ethnology / Cultural Anthropology tries to explain why everyday, quite natural, occurrences manifest themselves in certain cultural varieties.
