Contents
This module provides a foundation in different facets of Applied Ethnomusicology, such as designing and conducting ethnomusicological research in collaboration with community members and other nonacademic parties, applying ethnomusicological research and knowledge outside of academia for the benefit of specific communities or society, evaluating the impacts of ethnomusicological work, and/or disseminating ethnomusicological knowledge and re-search results to nonacademic audiences. The seminar may explore the use of music and ethnomusicological knowledge in a variety of contexts, such as education, cultural policy, conflict resolution, medicine/health, arts programming, and/or community music. Issues addressed may include ethics, social justice, cultural preservation, community problem solving, the role of activist and political scholarship, political and ideological debates, interdisciplinary applied approaches, bridging theory and practice, career options outside of academia, and/or skills needed for applied work.
