Contents
This module introduces students to the great variety of musical systems, sounds, and practices around the world. By exploring case studies of diverse art music and vernacular music traditions, students learn about different approaches to intonation, polyphony, rhythmic organization, musical form and structure, ensemble interaction, aesthetics, transmission, and creative practice. This module also provides an introduction to analytical approaches to world music.
Intended learning outcomes
Upon successful completion of this module, students should be able to demonstrate: an awareness and understanding of diverse musical sounds and practices from around the world; the ability to approach their own and other music cultures with both an open mind and critical reflection; a basic understanding of diverse approaches towards analyzing world music traditions.
