The module will provide students with skills of philological and historical sciences. The courses, which have to be attended, are may be selected freely from the course offered of the Faculty of Language, Literature and Culture. Additional offers from other faculties or central institutions of the University of Würzburg can be selected, provided that these offers relate to the disciplines American Studies, English Literary and Cultural Studies as well as English Linguistics, and that university teachers allow students to attend their courses. In an appropriate way, the executive board of English and American Studies certifies the student, after the required total ECTS points are reached, so that the attended courses will be applicable according to the above mentioned regulations.
