Contents

The module provides students with the possibility to pursue a research project of a linguistic issue on an academically high level individually and in a group, to apply their acquired technical knowledge and to present the results in a project work.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of the module, students are able to:

- understand a research field of the English linguistics and to evaluate its complex historical as well as theoretical contents,
- work on concepts, methods and research subjects of this research field independently as well as to broaden the issue by a practical application,
- provide others with the own research project on the basis of the current state of research and to discuss the problems, solutions and incidents on an academic level.
