Contents
Issues, methods and terms of English literature and cultural studies will be covered. The module deals with central issues, methods and terms that have established themselves in the English literature and cultural studies in the past decades. Taking into account the change of basic issues in context with historical and cultural transformation processes, the most important technologies and research approaches will be discussed. The focus of the reading matter and debates lies on methodological and theoretical orientated texts, which contents and concepts can be substantiated at the example of expressive primary literature.
