Contents
This module provides students with deeper insights into methods and problems in history, with a particular focus on ancient and medieval history. It then moves on to provide an overview of key media and methods for the teaching of topics from ancient and medieval history in the Hauptschule classroom.
Intended learning outcomes
This module provides students with deeper insights into a selected key topic in ancient or medieval history. It familiarises them with relevant research methods and subjects and provides an overview of major sources and accounts. Students develop the ability to use these when they prepare lessons and to adapt these into teaching materials that are suitable for pupils in Hauptschule. They develop the ability to reflect on the challenges and opportunities surrounding the teaching of topics from ancient and medieval history in the Hauptschule classroom and to apply the results of their reflection by planning lessons that are tailored to the needs of their target group. Students develop the ability to select media resources that match their learning goals and to use these in an appropriate manner.
