Contents
This module focuses on consolidating students' knowledge of ancient history and giving students an opportunity to independently apply this knowledge, employ the methods of the discipline, and use relevant forms of presentation. Discussing selected examples, the module consolidates students' previous knowledge of ancient history. Problems in ancient history are explored in both source-based and research-oriented courses. Problems in cultural, social, structural, and economic history, the history of society, and the history of mentalities as well as interdisciplinary problems relating to Greco-Roman antiquity are also considered.
Intended learning outcomes
Students are able to familiarise themselves with more complex issues, employing methods in ancient history and taking into account relevant source material and literature as well as the findings of related disciplines. They are able to analyse and interpret sources and accounts of Greek and Roman history.
