

Module description

Module offered by holder of the Chair of Medieval History and Historical Auxiliary Sciences  ECTS Method of grading Only after succ. compl. of module(s)  numerical grade  Duration Module level Other prerequisites  1 semester graduate Admission prerequisite to assessment: regular attendance (a maximum of 2 incidents of unexcused absence) of courses (lectures excluded).  Contents  This module focuses on consolidating students' knowledge of medieval history and giving students an opportunity to independently apply this knowledge, employ the methods of the discipline, and use relevant forms of presentation. Discussing selected examples, the module consolidates students' previous knowledge of medieval history. Problems in medieval history are explored in both source-based and research-oriented courses. Problems in cultural, social, structural, and economic history, the history of society, and the history of mentalities as well as interdisciplinary problems are also considered.  Intended learning outcomes  Students are able to familiarise themselves with more complex issues, employing the methods of the discipline and taking into account relevant source material and secondary literature as well as the findings of related disciplines. They are able to independently analyse and interpret sources and accounts of medieval history.  Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language — if other than German)  V + S (no information on SWS (weekly contact hours) and course language available)  Method of assessment (type, scope, language — if other than German, examination offered — if not every semester, information on whether module is creditable for bonus)  a) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written elaboration (approx. 15 pages), or b) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written examination (approx. 2 pages), or b) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written examination (approx. 25 minutes) w	Module title					Abbreviation
holder of the Chair of Medieval History and Historical Auxi- liary Sciences  ECTS Method of grading Only after succ. compl. of module(s)  numerical grade	Level Four Module Medieval History					04-GeMA-IM-MAG-122-m01
Itary Sciences	Module coordinator				Module offered by
Duration Module level Other prerequisites  1 semester graduate Admission prerequisite to assessment: regular attendance (a maximum of 2 incidents of unexcused absence) of courses (lectures excluded).  Contents  This module focuses on consolidating students' knowledge of medieval history and giving students an opportunity to independently apply this knowledge, employ the methods of the discipline, and use relevant forms of pre sentation. Discussing selected examples, the module consolidates students' previous knowledge of medieval history. Problems in medieval history are explored in both source-based and research-oriented courses. Problems in cultural, social, structural, and economic history, the history of society, and the history of mentalities as well as interdisciplinary problems are also considered.  Intended learning outcomes  Students are able to familiarise themselves with more complex issues, employing the methods of the discipline and taking into account relevant source material and secondary literature as well as the findings of related disciplines. They are able to independently analyse and interpret sources and accounts of medieval history.  Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language — if other than German)  V + S (no information on SWS (weekly contact hours) and course language available)  Method of assessment (type, scope, language — if other than German, examination offered — if not every semester, information on whether module is creditable for bonus)  a) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written elaboration (approx. 15 pages), or b) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written examination (approx. 30 presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written examination (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written examination (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written examination (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (a		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Duration Module level Other prerequisites  1 semester graduate Admission prerequisite to assessment: regular attendance (a maximum of 2 incidents of unexcused absence) of courses (lectures excluded).  Contents  This module focuses on consolidating students' knowledge of medieval history and giving students an opportunity to independently apply this knowledge, employ the methods of the discipline, and use relevant forms of presentation. Discussing selected examples, the module consolidates students' previous knowledge of medieval history. Problems in medieval history are explored in both source-based and research-oriented courses. Problems in cultural, social, structural, and economic history, the history of society, and the history of mentalities as well as interdisciplinary problems are also considered.  Intended learning outcomes  Students are able to familiarise themselves with more complex issues, employing the methods of the discipline and taking into account relevant source material and secondary literature as well as the findings of related disciplines. They are able to independently analyse and interpret sources and accounts of medieval history.  Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language — if other than German)  V + S (no information on SWS (weekly contact hours) and course language available)  Method of assessment (type, scope, language — if other than German, examination offered — if not every semester, information on whether module is creditable for bonus)  a) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written elaboration (approx. 15 pages), or b) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written examination (approx. 26 minutes), weighted 3:7  Additional information	ECTS	ECTS Method of grading Only after succ. compl. of module(s			npl. of module(s)
Admission prerequisite to assessment: regular attendance (a maximum of 2 incidents of unexcused absence) of courses (lectures excluded).  Contents  This module focuses on consolidating students' knowledge of medieval history and giving students an opporturity to independently apply this knowledge, employ the methods of the discipline, and use relevant forms of presentation. Discussing selected examples, the module consolidates students' previous knowledge of medieval history robolems in medieval history are explored in both source-based and research-oriented courses. Problems in cultural, social, structural, and economic history, the history of society, and the history of mentalities as well as interdisciplinary problems are also considered.  Intended learning outcomes  Students are able to familiarise themselves with more complex issues, employing the methods of the discipline and taking into account relevant source material and secondary literature as well as the findings of related disciplines. They are able to independently analyse and interpret sources and accounts of medieval history.  Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language — if other than German)  V + 5 (no information on SWS (weekly contact hours) and course language available)  Method of assessment (type, scope, language — if other than German, examination offered — if not every semester, information on whether module is creditable for bonus)  a) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written elaboration (approx. 15 pages), or b) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written examination (approx. 6 or minutes), weighted 3:7  Additional information	10	nume	rical grade
Octents  This module focuses on consolidating students' knowledge of medieval history and giving students an opportunity to independently apply this knowledge, employ the methods of the discipline, and use relevant forms of presentation. Discussing selected examples, the module consolidates students' previous knowledge of medieval history. Problems in medieval history are explored in both source-based and research-oriented courses. Problems in cultural, social, structural, and economic history, the history of society, and the history of mentalities as well as interdisciplinary problems are also considered.  Intended learning outcomes  Students are able to familiarise themselves with more complex issues, employing the methods of the discipline and taking into account relevant source material and secondary literature as well as the findings of related disciplines. They are able to independently analyse and interpret sources and accounts of medieval history.  Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language — if other than German)  V + S (no information on SWS (weekly contact hours) and course language available)  Method of assessment (type, scope, language — if other than German, examination offered — if not every semester, information on whether module is creditable for bonus)  a) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written elaboration (approx. 15 pages), or b) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written examination (approx. 30 minutes), weighted 3:7  Allocation of places	Duration		Module level	Other prerequisites
This module focuses on consolidating students' knowledge of medieval history and giving students an opportunity to independently apply this knowledge, employ the methods of the discipline, and use relevant forms of pre sentation. Discussing selected examples, the module consolidates students' previous knowledge of medieval history, of previous knowledge of medieval history, or beful and research-oriented courses. Problems in cultural, social, structural, and economic history, the history of society, and the history of mentalities as well as interdisciplinary problems are also considered.  Intended learning outcomes  Students are able to familiarise themselves with more complex issues, employing the methods of the discipline and taking into account relevant source material and secondary literature as well as the findings of related disciplines. They are able to independently analyse and interpret sources and accounts of medieval history.  Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language — if other than German)  V + S (no information on SWS (weekly contact hours) and course language available)  Method of assessment (type, scope, language — if other than German, examination offered — if not every semester, information on whether module is creditable for bonus)  a) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written elaboration (approx. 15 pages), or b) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written examination (approx. 60 minutes), weighted 3:7  Allocation of places	1 semester		graduate nity to independently apply this knowledge, employ the methods of the discipline, and use relevant forms of presentation. Discussing selected examples, the module consolidates students' previous knowledge of medieval history. Problems in medieval history are explored in both source-based and research-oriented courses. Problems in cultural, social, structural, and economic history, the history of society, and the history of mentalities as well as interdisciplinary problems are also considered.  Intended learning outcomes  Students are able to familiarise themselves with more complex issues, employing the methods of the discipline and taking into account relevant source material and secondary literature as well as the findings of related disciplines. They are able to independently analyse and interpret sources and accounts of medieval history.  Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language — if other than German)  V + S (no information on SWS (weekly contact hours) and course language available)  Method of assessment (type, scope, language — if other than German, examination offered — if not every semester, information on whether module is creditable for bonus)  a) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written elaboration (approx. 15 pages), or b) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written examination (approx. 60 minutes), weighted 3:7  Allocation of places	Contents
Students are able to familiarise themselves with more complex issues, employing the methods of the discipline and taking into account relevant source material and secondary literature as well as the findings of related disciplines. They are able to independently analyse and interpret sources and accounts of medieval history.  Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language — if other than German)  V + S (no information on SWS (weekly contact hours) and course language available)  Method of assessment (type, scope, language — if other than German, examination offered — if not every semester, information on whether module is creditable for bonus)  a) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written elaboration (approx. 15 pages), or b) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written examination (approx. 60 minutes), weighted 3:7  Allocation of places	sentation. Discussing selected examples, the module consolidates students' previous knowledge of medieval history. Problems in medieval history are explored in both source-based and research-oriented courses. Problems in cultural, social, structural, and economic history, the history of society, and the history of mentalities as well and taking into account relevant source material and secondary literature as well as the findings of related disciplines. They are able to independently analyse and interpret sources and accounts of medieval history.  Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language — if other than German)  V + S (no information on SWS (weekly contact hours) and course language available)  Method of assessment (type, scope, language — if other than German, examination offered — if not every semester, information on whether module is creditable for bonus)  a) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written elaboration (approx. 15 pages), or b) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written examination (approx. 6 o minutes), weighted 3:7  Allocation of places	Intended learning outcomes
Wethod of assessment (type, scope, language — if other than German, examination offered — if not every semester, information on whether module is creditable for bonus)  a) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written elaboration (approx. 15 pages), or b) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written examination (approx. 60 minutes), weighted 3:7  Allocation of places  Additional information  Workload  Teaching cycle  Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes)  Module appears in  Master's degree (2 majors) History (2012)	and taking into account relevant source material and secondary literature as well as the findings of related disci-
Method of assessment (type, scope, language — if other than German, examination offered — if not every semester, information on whether module is creditable for bonus)  a) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written elaboration (approx. 15 pages), or b) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written examination (approx. 60 minutes), weighted 3:7  Allocation of places   Workload   Teaching cycle   Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes)   Module appears in  Master's degree (2 majors) History (2012)	Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language — if other than German)
module is creditable for bonus) a) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written elaboration (approx. 15 pages), or b) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written examination (approx. 60 minutes), weighted 3:7  Allocation of places  Additional information  Workload  Teaching cycle  Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes)  Module appears in  Master's degree (2 majors) History (2012)	V + S (no information on SWS (weekly contact hours) and course language available) pages), or b) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written examination (approx. 60 minutes), weighted 3:7  Allocation of places
Additional information  Workload Teaching cycle Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes) Module appears in Master's degree (2 majors) History (2012)	pages), or b) presentation (approx. 25 minutes) with position paper (approx. 2 pages) and written examination
Workload Teaching cycle Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes) Module appears in Master's degree (2 majors) History (2012)	Allocation of places
Workload Teaching cycle Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes) Module appears in Master's degree (2 majors) History (2012)
Teaching cycle Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes) Module appears in Master's degree (2 majors) History (2012)	Additional information
Teaching cycle Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes) Module appears in Master's degree (2 majors) History (2012)
Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes)   Module appears in  Master's degree (2 majors) History (2012)	Workload
Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes)   Module appears in  Master's degree (2 majors) History (2012)
Module appears in Master's degree (2 majors) History (2012)	Teaching cycle
Module appears in Master's degree (2 majors) History (2012)
Master's degree (2 majors) History (2012)	Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes)
Master's degree (2 majors) History (2012)			•
				)
		_						