Contents
In the light of historical, art-historical and topographical aspects, the module provides an insight into the covered space of Classical Archeology of the Greco-Roman world with central sites and achievements of art and architecture. Field trips, which are made within the module, to places and countries of classic antiquity or places with important museums, antique collections etc. provide insights into the ancient cultures and their reception and contribute to the consolidation of background information and regional as well as cultural skills, which are required for the understanding of ancient texts.
Intended learning outcomes
Students are able to classify the covered historical cultural heritage of Classical Archaeology geographically and historically. They gain expertise of archaeological findings as well as central sites or monuments; They are familiar with the respective technical literature and are able to independently link material testimonies with the culture and texts of classical antiquity.
