Contents
With changing thematic focuses, the module provides students with in-depth knowledge of the Auxiliary Sciences of History. The focus is on the in-depth practice of basic academic skills, techniques and methods based on selected topics (in addition to palaeography and diplomatics, especially archival science, chronology, epigraphy, heraldry and sphragistics) as well as on dealing with corresponding problems and research approaches in current basic academic research.
Intended learning outcomes
The students are able to apply the acquired basic academic skills, techniques and methods, with the help of relevant source material, research literature and research findings confidently.
