Contents

Selected projects in South Asia (e.g., the study of a dialect or the religious festivals of a population group, seeing behind the scenes of a development aid project) will introduce students to field research methods. This module will provide students with an opportunity to gain concrete experience and analyse their experiences together with their classmates.

Intended learning outcomes

Depending on their focus, students will be proficient in fundamental methods of field research on selected topics in ethnography, regional history, linguistics or the social sciences.

Courses

E (no information on SWS (weekly contact hours) and course language available)

Method of assessment

- written field research report (approx. 20 pages)
- Language of assessment: German or English

Allocation of places

Number of places: 12. Places will primarily be allocated to students of the subject Indologie/Südasienkunde (Indology/South Asian Studies). If and when places become available, they will be allocated to students of other subjects as part of a planned teaching export. Places will be allocated according to the number of subject semesters; among applicants with the same number of subject semesters, places will be allocated by lot.
