Contents
This module provides important aspects of the sacral and sepulchral character with the help of selected examples and covers the related rituals, sites and memorials. Moreover, the module covers advanced history and topography of a geographical unit in the Greek-Roman settlement area in the light of historico-cultural aspects and thus, considers the important sites, specific memorials and findings in their regional and cultural context. Particular attention will be paid to the classification of covered regions into the environment of the Mediterranean cultural space.
Intended learning outcomes
The students are able to classify and question current research results about the detailed knowledge of the specific function "archaeological remains" against the background of their find context. Thus, they achieve a safe and critical handling with the methodology and terminology and are able to present complex scientific discourses and to evaluate them in written form collectively.
