Contents
The module is designed to provide students with a basic overview of the fundamental genres of Greek and Roman architecture, taking into account the typology, function and structural aspects.
Intended learning outcomes
According to genre-specific methodology, students are able to process archaeological legacies of Greek and Roman architecture and to classify them chronologically and in a stylised and hermeneutic way. Furthermore, they develop a critical understanding of current method and research discussions and are familiar with the respective specialised literature.
