Contents
Media literacy in an academic context: research strategies and tools; working with electronic image databases; searching for images on the internet; introduction to legal issues associated with the use of image sources (copyrights, exploitation rights); production of new image sources and practical use of image sources during university studies.
Intended learning outcomes
Students know how and where to search for images to use in presentations. They know how to use and add to the image database of the Institute of Art History that is currently in the process of being created. Students know what to keep in mind when using copyrighted images and are also able to present these images. The module equips students with the knowledge and skills necessary to prepare image-based scholarly presentations.
