Contents
Within a seminar, students will deal in-depth with complex academic issues of literary history or text interpretation, which will be completed by the attendance of a literary lecture, systematically and historically. They will present complex academic issues and subsequent drawing up of a written draft orally.
Intended learning outcomes
Students deal with complex academic issues as well as their application on literary and academic texts from Greek antiquity autonomously. They are able to script complex academic issues independently.
