Contents
In this module, all areas of Latin grammar will be applied; Students will translate German texts, which contain ancient thinking and ideas, with historical content into appropriate or classical Latin (retroversions, such as Caesar, Livius); They will broaden their Latin phraseology for historical topics; They will deepen their grammatical-syntactical knowledge (especially temporal clauses, nominal forms of the verb, periodisation). They will translate more demanding texts* from the field of Latin literature into German. In the course of this, they will repeat essential chapters of school grammar and discuss metrical phenomena. They will be instructed in linguistic-historical and stylistic text analysis and introduced to various methods of interpretation.
Intended learning outcomes
Students have advanced knowledge of Latin grammar rules, especially syntax; they have advanced knowledge of Latin phraseology; they are able to translate easy and moderately difficult* German texts, which contain ancient thinking and ideas, into appropriate or classical Latin (retroversions). Students have an in-depth ability to develop a limited sub-area of Latin literature with the methodological tools of classics and have extensive experience with various methods of interpretation and their application.
