Contents
Subject-related knowledge of the aims, content and methods of art education known from literature and the localisation of the subject of the written assignment within this. Independent scientific elaboration of a subject using humanities and/or empirical research methods. Skills in adequate presentation
Intended learning outcomes
The written term paper is an independent written presentation of the results of the student's own research into a subject from the field of art education. It must be demonstrated that the chosen methods have been considered, selected appropriately for the subject matter and applied correctly. Knowledge of the literature must be taken into account, terms must be used correctly and the results must be categorised in the context of the literature. An error-free presentation in an appropriate manner is expected.
