Contents
The module is composed of two classes within one teaching year. It offers an overview on selected topics on East Asian traditions such as religion, popular customs, cultural skills, traveling, cultural understanding of landscape etc. with a focus on China. In the second part these fields will be connected to relevant topics in corresponding cultural regions in East Asia especially Japan and Korea. The module aims at an understanding of similarities and distinctions among neighboring cultural regions as well as creating an understanding of continuities and discontinuities over the pre-modern and modern epochs.
Intended learning outcomes
Students learn to identify and contextualize religious and cultural phenomena within their societal and historical developments. They are able to compare and critically reflect relevant issues and decisions in the respective research field of China and neighbouring regions.
